

\\\\ REPEAL DAY \\\\

The production, distribution and consumption of alcohol was illegalized in our country from January 17th, 1920 to December 5th, 1933.

Please join us in celebrating the repeal of the eighteenth amendment by partaking in legalized classics that defined the Prohibition-era in their original, unaltered form.

BAMBOO // 8

tio pepe fino sherry, dolin vermouth de chambery rouge, angostura and orange bitters, orange expression
Thomas Stuart, "Fancy Drinks and How to Mix Them", 1896

EL PRESIDENTE // 9

plantation 5yr rum, dolin vermouth de chambery dry, pierre ferrand dry curacao, housemade grenadine
Eddie Woelke, Sevilla Biltmore Hotel, c. 1919

THE LAST WORD // 10

new amsterdam gin, green chartreuse, luxardo maraschino liqueur, lime
Frank Fogarty, Detroit Athletic Club, c. 1921

PISCO SOUR // 7

capel pisco, lemon, simple syrup, egg white, angostura bitters
Victor Vaughn Morris, Morris' Bar, 1921

CORPSE REVIVER #2 // 9

new amsterdam gin, cointreau, lillet blanc, lemon, pernod absinthe superieure
Harry Craddock, "The Savoy Cocktail Book", 1930